Description

A little lime salt and honey go a long way in this dish created out of sheer boredom One night last summer we were grilling fish and corn yet again When I asked my boyfriend what he wanted as a second side dish all he said was something different I decided to try a twist on the traditional fruit salad that I grew up eating and it was a huge hit The best thing about this recipe is that most fruits are great with the dressing so you can use your favorites or whatever is in season

Ingredients

— - ¼ cup fresh lime juice - 3 tablespoons honey - 2 teaspoons salt - ½ teaspoon ground cayenne pepper (Optional) - 1 pound fresh strawberries

— hulled and quartered lengthwise - 3 cups cubed seedless watermelon - 1 fresh pineapple - peeled

— cored and cut into 1 inch chunks

Instructions

1. Stir together the lime juice
2. honey
3. salt
4. and cayenne pepper in the bottom of a large salad bowl. Toss the strawberries
5. watermelon
6. and pineapple with the dressing. Chill the fruit salad until ready to serve.
