Description

Yet another of my mothers recipes I enjoyed as a kid This is a tasty and flavorful soup that is easy to make and works as a great lunch or dinner meal I can remember as a kid that I liked to pour the hot soup over the chips and cheese and play with the cheese as it melted who says you cant play with your food I hope you enjoy this soup as much as I have and make good family memories with it

Ingredients

— - 1 (14 ounce) can vegetable broth (such as Swanson®) - 2 (15.25 ounce) cans Mexican-style corn with red and green peppers - 2 (15 ounce) cans black beans

— drained and rinsed - 1 (10 ounce) container chunky salsa - 1 (8 ounce) package tortilla chips - 1 (8 ounce) package shredded Mexican cheese blend

Instructions

1. Combine vegetable broth
2. corn
3. black beans
4. and salsa in a pot over medium-high heat. Bring to a boil and cook until heated through
5. about 5 minutes. Crush tortilla chips into individual bowls and top with Mexican cheese. Ladle soup over chips and cheese. Cook's note: Have a variety of chip choices; tortilla
6. Fritos(R)
7. or Doritos(R) chips are a good idea. You can mix and match as you go back for seconds.
