Description

This is a quick pasta salad that is kicked up a notch by using tortellini instead of regular pasta. It is great for a cookout or potluck because it doesn't include mayonnaise.

Ingredients

- 20 ounces refrigerated cheese tortellini - 2 cups halved cherry tomatoes - 1 ½ cups bite-sized broccoli florets - 1 cup diced yellow bell pepper - ¾ cup shredded Parmesan cheese - 6 ounces pepperoni sausage
- cubed (Optional) - 1 cup Italian-style salad dressing (such as Newman's Own®) (Optional) - ¼ cup Italian-style salad dressing (such as Newman's Own®) (Optional)

Instructions

1. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Cook tortellini at a boil until tender yet firm to the bite and filling is warmed through
2. 5 to 7 minutes; drain. Stir cooked tortellini
3. tomatoes
4. broccoli
5. yellow bell pepper
6. Parmesan cheese
7. and pepperoni together in a bowl. Pour in 1 cup Italian dressing and toss to coat. Cover and refrigerate for at least 4 hours. If salad looks dry
8. stir in an additional 1/4 cup Italian dressing before serving. Cook's Note: I have tried several types of Italian dressing and have found that Newman's Own Family Recipe Italian(R) works best in this recipe.
